

SPINAL INJURIES

I. TREATMENT:

- A. Airway management - Suction as necessary. Assist respiration as needed.
- B. Immobilize on long backboard after rolling patient as unit.
- C. Patient should be secured to board to allow the patient to be transported on their side if vomiting.
- D. Monitor vital signs and reassess neurological exam before and after immobilization.